¹⁸ One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers—Simon, also called Peter, and Andrew—throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. ¹⁹ Jesus called out to them, “Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!” ²⁰ And they left their nets at once and followed him. ²¹ A little farther up the shore he saw two other brothers, James and John, sitting in a boat with their father, Zebedee, repairing their nets. And he called them to come, too. ²² They immediately followed him, leaving the boat and their father behind.

Matthew 4:18-22

13 The members of the council were amazed when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, for they could see that they were ordinary men with no special training in the Scriptures. They also recognized them as men who had been with Jesus.

Acts 4:13 (NLT)

I planted the seed in your hearts, and Apollos watered it, but it was God who made it grow. It's not important who does the planting, or who does the watering. What's important is that God makes the seed grow.

1 Corinthians 3:6

As God's Spirit works within us, we are being transformed to become more like Christ. This change, from one degree of glory to another, comes from the Lord.

2 Corinthians 3:18

Groups and Gatherings

we experience and reveal more of Jesus
together than alone

¹Jesus called his twelve disciples together and gave them authority to cast out evilspirits and to heal every kind of disease and illness. ²Here are the names of the twelve apostles....

⁵Jesus sent out the twelve apostles with these instructions:

Matthew 10:1-2, 5 (NLT)

*It's not just about meeting together, it's about experiencing and revealing Jesus together.
It requires a commitment to be used by God to reveal Jesus to one another.*

Reproducibility

35 Jesus traveled through all the towns and villages of that area, teaching in the synagogues and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom. And he healed every kind of disease and illness. 36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them because they were confused and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. 37 He said to his disciples, “The harvest is great, but the workers are few. 38 So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields.”

Matthew 9:35-38 (NLT)

It's not about building volunteers but disciple-makers. The first requires time, the second requires Jesus like transformation. It may be harder, but it's healthier.

A person is shown from the chest up, wearing a dark jacket, with their arms crossed. The image is dimly lit and has a semi-transparent dark rectangle overlaid in the center. Inside this rectangle, the text "Actively Hearing and Obeying" is written in a light orange color, and the following text is in white.

Actively Hearing and Obeying through hearing and obeying the Living Word, we work with God to see change in us and others

46 “Why do you call me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and not do what I tell you?
47 Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: 48 he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. 49 But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.”

Luke 6:46-49 (ESV)

It's not about will powered obedience, it's about hearing God's voice through the Word that stirs faith and trust in your heart to obey. This value builds an unshakeable YOU, because it builds an unshakeable faith and trust in God and His Word.
