“A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

John 13:34-35
(NLT)

“A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

Connecting

Jesus connected with God and those near and far from God

Having a balance of these three connections in our life and groups is critical for our spiritual growth.

We love each other because God loved us first. If someone says, "I love God," but hates a fellow believer, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we cannot see? And he has given us this command: Those who love God must also love their fellow believers."

1 John 4:19-21 (NLT)

The value of connecting not only drove WHO Jesus connected with, but HOW He connected with people. One of the clearest way we tell if we love God is in HOW we love people.

Everyday Moments

the Holy Spirit uses everyday moments to shape us to become more like Jesus

<sup>35</sup> Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came over and spoke to him. “Teacher,” they said, “we want you to do us a favor.” <sup>36</sup> “What is your request?” he asked. <sup>37</sup> They replied, “When you sit on your glorious throne, we want to sit in places of honor next to you, one on your right and the other on your left.”

Mark 10:35-37 (NLT)

<sup>41</sup> When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had asked, they were indignant. <sup>42</sup> So Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. <sup>43</sup> But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, <sup>44</sup> and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of everyone else. <sup>45</sup> For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Groups and Gatherings

Jesus is experienced and represented more when we are together than alone.

Reproducibility

Healthy disciples reproduce disciples.

Actively Hearing and Obeying

Through hearing and obeying the living Word, we work with God to see change in us and others.
